

WORKSHOP BRIEF

---

A one-day workshop on Fundamentals and Theoretical Approaches to International Relations and International Law was held at City College, Kolkata on the 8th of February, 2020. The workshop was organized by Tillotoma Foundation in association with the Department of Political Science, City College.

A range of topics covering the economic, political, cultural and other related aspects of International Relations and International Law were addressed eloquently by various academics, scholars and students from different departments. The Keynote Speaker, Shri Siddhartha Majumdar (Economics) talked about the Bretton Woods institution and its impact on international monetary policies, Dr. Saswati Ghosh (Economics) made a PowerPoint presentation on the important issues regarding gender and security in South Asia where she addressed topics such as migration, livelihood concerns and trafficking. Dr. Kaustav Chakrabarti (History) presented a paper on the changing faces of world order in historical perspective. The workshop was successful in providing the students of the college with an opportunity to present their own papers on important issues of global politics.

External delegates and speakers in the workshop included Prof. Bimal Sankar Nanda (President, West Bengal Political Science Association), Mr. Soham Das (Director, Tillotoma Foundation, Kolkata) and Mr. Gadadhar Chatterjee (Executive Director, Security Research Foundation)

Aditya Kant Ghising,
Assistant Professor,
Department of Political Science,
City College
(Workshop Coordinator)