Notice

Sub: important Notice in respect of CU Part I & II Examinations, 2020 (Honours & General)

All are aware that the University of Calcutta has recently uploaded a checklist containing the names of numerous candidates who are eligible to appear for the above-mentioned examinations. The said list has also been subsequently uploaded in our website for the convenience of our students.

It is observed that the CU list contains even the names of students who were registered with the University as far back as 2009. In order to update our data base about such decade old students, as well as to have an idea about the probable number of candidates who are actually willing to sit for assessment/evaluation, a google form link is being provided below which an intending candidate must fill up by 7th of December, 2020.
