The University of Calcutta introduced the Choice-Based Credit System (CBCS) in 2017, establishing a new syllabus applicable to all colleges offering undergraduate courses. City College, in adherence to this system, provides a three-year course for B. Com Honours and B. Com General. As part of the B. Com Honours program's curriculum, students in Semester VI are mandated to undertake a comprehensive dissertation cum project worth 100 marks.

Within this three-year course, students are tasked with preparing a project on diverse subjects such as Accounting, Cost Accounting, Taxation, Banking, Marketing, Corporate Social Responsibilities, and more. Each student collaborates with a departmental professor who guides them through the project's development. The projects are subsequently evaluated by both an internal and an external examiner on a specified date.
