The CBCS system, implemented by the University of Calcutta in 2017, introduced a revised syllabus for all undergraduate courses across affiliated colleges. City College, as part of this system, offers a three-year course in both B. Com Honours and B. Com General. In the case of the B. Com Honours program spanning three years, students in Semester VI are mandated to undertake a comprehensive dissertation cum Project, accounting for 100 marks.

Each student is tasked with developing a project on diverse subjects such as Accounting, Cost Accounting, Taxation, Banking, Marketing, Corporate Social Responsibilities, and more. The guidance of a departmental professor is sought throughout the project's creation process. Subsequently, the project undergoes evaluation by both an internal and an external examiner on a predetermined date.
