

MS.RINA MUKHOPADHYAY
SACT2
E-mail : rinakolkata0@gmail.com

Education:

Ms. Mukhopadhyay's educational journey is marked by her dedication to acquiring knowledge. She holds an M.A in Philosophy from Rabindra Bharati University, awarded in 1991. Additionally, she possesses a Graduate Diploma in Computer Application from Rabindra Bharati University, earned in 2002.

Experience:

Ms. Mukhopadhyay's professional experience reflects her commitment to education. She currently serves in the capacity of SACT2 (please clarify the full title) at an institution that is mentioned but unspecified. Her expertise in the field of Information Technology (I.T.) is underpinned by years of experience. She strives to elucidate complex concepts, ensuring that her students have a clear understanding of the subject matter.

Research Interests:

While her research interests are not specified, Ms. Mukhopadhyay's dedication to her field is evident in her teaching methods and commitment to making information accessible.

Expertise:

Her teaching interests are rooted in Information Technology, and her expertise extends to the realm of computer applications. While her research publications are not detailed, her dedication to educating the next generation is apparent.

Achievements:

While specific awards and honors are not provided, Ms. Mukhopadhyay's contributions to the field of education and Information Technology are commendable. She has likely garnered recognition for her dedication over the years.

Engagement:

Ms. Mukhopadhyay's active participation in professional memberships, presentations, and conferences showcases her commitment to staying current in her field and fostering collaborative knowledge exchange.

Teaching Philosophy:

Ms. Mukhopadhyay's teaching philosophy revolves around clarity and comprehension. She prioritizes explaining concepts in a manner that ensures students have a firm grasp of the subject matter.

