

MR.SOUMENDRA LAHA (HOD)

FTT

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR

E-mail : soumendralaha@citycollegekolkata.org

Education:

Mr. Laha's educational journey is a testament to his commitment to academic excellence. He holds an MBA in Finance from Pondicherry University (2022), a UGC NET qualification in Commerce (2014), an M.Phil in Commerce from the University of Calcutta (2013), and an M.Com in Accounting & Finance from St. Xavier's College (Autonomous), Kolkata (2010). Furthermore, he possesses a Post Graduate Diploma in Banking & Operations (PGDBO) from IFBI, Kolkata (2008), and a B.Com (Hons.) degree in Accounting & Finance from Goenka College of Commerce & Business Administration, Kolkata (2007).

Experience:

Mr. Laha's extensive teaching experience is a hallmark of his academic journey. Presently, he serves as a full-time Assistant Professor at City College, Kolkata, in the Department of Commerce. His dedication to education has also been evident during his four-year tenure as a full-time Assistant Professor at St. Xavier's College (Autonomous), Kolkata, within the Department of Commerce's morning section. Furthermore, he has contributed to the academic community as a visiting faculty member at Unitedworld School of Business, Kolkata, where he taught MBA students for four years, and at Techno India School of Business, Kolkata, imparting knowledge to management students. His versatility extends to teaching MCA and BCA students at Techno India Group of Colleges, Kolkata, and part-time lecturing at Prafulla Chandra College, Kolkata, in the evening section for the past six years. Mr. Laha has also enriched the learning experience at Bhavans Institute of Management Sciences, Kolkata, teaching both MBA and BBA students. His full-time lecturer role at The Bhawanipur Education Society College in the Department of Commerce spanned four years. Additionally, he served as a Guest Lecturer at S.A. Jaipuria College, Kolkata, for a period of three years. His practical experience includes a six-month tenure as an Associate at Price Waterhouse Coopers (PWC) SDC Kolkata.

Research Interests:

Mr. Laha's research interests are diverse, encompassing key areas such as banking, sustainability, corporate social responsibility, investment analysis, security analysis, and the intricacies of the stock market.

Expertise:

Within the realm of teaching, Mr. Laha's interests are equally broad, covering subjects like Financial Accounting, Cost & Management Accounting, Financial Management, Financial Statement Analysis, and the Indian Financial System. He has also made significant contributions to academia through research publications.

Achievements:

Mr. Laha's academic journey is adorned with numerous accolades, including a Certificate of Excellence for outstanding performance in the B.Com (Honours) examination and the distinction of securing First Class First in M.Phil in Commerce in 2013. In addition to these accolades, he has received grants and funding to support his academic pursuits.

Engagement:

Active engagement in professional memberships and participation in presentations and conferences are integral aspects of Mr. Laha's academic life. Through these platforms, he contributes to the exchange of ideas, fosters collaboration, and facilitates the dissemination of knowledge.

Contributions:

Beyond the confines of traditional academia, Mr. Laha extends his expertise to provide professional services and actively engages in community involvement. His dedication to making a positive impact on society is evident through these activities.