

Poets' Travelogue

The Grand Indian Express

Editor
ANAND KUMAR

This is a brilliant potpourri of poems presenting vivid and unique characters of towns and cities spread across the length and breadth of India. It is highly recommended to the travellers who love poetry and want to see the soul of an Indian town.

The Contributors

Abha Iyengar

Abhay K

Amitabh Mitra

Anand Kumar

Anjana Basu

Anu Majumdar

Arundhati Subramaniam

Arvind K. Mehrotra

Bibhudatta Mohanty

Bibhu Padhi

Bina Biswas

Desmond

Kharmawphlang

Dilip Mohapatra

Gopikrishnan Kottor

H.K. Kaul

Harvinder Kaur

K Satchidanandan

Makarand Paranjape

Mamng Dai

Mamta Agarwal

Meena Alexander

Minal Sarosh

Nibedita Sen

Rabindra K Swain

Rizio Yohannan Raj

Roger Harris

Sayed Ali Hamid

Shanta Acharya

Sharmila Ray

Siddhartha Bose

Smita Agarwal

Subroto Bondo

Sujata Mathai

Sujata Parashar

Sukrita Paul Kumar

Tabish Khair

Usha Kishore

Vihang A. Naik

Vivek Narayanan

Anand Kumar has edited a fine and unusual anthology of English poems which can be considered miniature travelogues through contemporary India. Some poems take us through crowded bazaars, others find less travelled paths to river banks or follow strange pilgrim-routes through the labyrinths of the soul searching for enlightenment.

- Alok Bhalla, teacher and writer

ISBN 978-93-82647-29-4

9 789382 647294

₹ 795 | $ 40

Cover painting & design by Pawan Tiwari